CODFISH. 10 DRUMS FOR SALE

NOW STHE TIME TO ADVERTISE. If you wish to command a fair share of our Spring is upon us, too, and everybody is looking around to find where they can buy to the best advantage. Don't expect them to go from one street to another. Hundreds have not time, and they read the advertisements in the Democrat and go directly to buy. If your advertisement is not in the Democrat, you may lose many chances to seli Hundreds read our paper every day. Our circulation in the city is increasing very rapidly, and

The Democrat has the largest circulation west at the present rate of increase, will soon have more of the Mississippi. Our terms are moderate to promot men. Every business man owes it to him self to increase his business as much as possible, and the best way to accomplish that end, is to ad vertise in the Democrat, which is universally read in the city and country.

The first Monday in June is close at hand, when the next President of the United States will be designated at Cincinnati. Whoever is nominated by the Convention, at that place, will be elected by the people, if the Democracy are only true to themselves. We congratulate them on the unanimity of sentiment that now everywhere prevails. There is no jarring of sentiments. The Convention don't assemble to make a creed; it is already made. They have only to write it out and put it on record. The s rongest resolutions in favor of the policy of the Kansas-Nebraska bill will no d ubt come from the North, and be most strenuously insisted on from that region. Our territorial policy being thus put before the country, will be ratified by a popular verd et; that, in our judgment, will settle the question for this generation. Sound patriotic men everywhere look to that Convention as the hope of the country. It will not be a mere negative body, nor the race to succeed a negative one. There will be no faltering in policy, object, or purpose. When the victory is won, it will have a meaning not to be misinter-

The constitution, and the policy of our fathers under it, will be sustained by the Democratic party. The federal government will not be allowed to be an agent to war upon the institutions of half the Union; the liberal policy to foreign emigrants who seek here an asylum from oppres sion, will be sustained as the Republican party in the days of Jefferson left it. The odious proscription of men for their religion will meet an em phatic rebuke that will put it out of the political arena. There will be no more investments made in that stock. True, Americanism will be proclaimed by that Convention, and ratified by the voice of a free people. The pestilent isms that have been thrust into political contests, will find a anietus in the result next November.

duty. We shall have a standard-bearer who will Kentucky. It proclaims, as its sole basis, a contest of races and religions; but it is really a fighting for spoils. Its disciples profess a great horror of foreign allegiance; but, in fact, they owe allegiance to a stood before the world. lust of office, and little else. It is the duty of the Democracy to give the vote of this State to the Democratic candidate. The South should not be divided; for the opposition in the free States are waging a war upon this section of the Union. They make their calculations to carry most, if not all, the Northern States. In this, we hope and be lieve they will be mistaken; but it will be suicidal to risk the loss of a Southern State.

Let every Democrat be ready to do his whole

If Kentucky be true to herself, she will go with the other Southern States for the nominee of the Democratic Convention. It is well understood now, that the contest is between the Democratic and Black Republican parties. The Know-Nothing division can only weaken the Democratic parry South, if it does as much; and thereby aid her enemies. Shall Kentucky be found thus treacherous to the best interests of the country generally, and to the South particularly. Let it never be said of this Commonwealth, that in such a crisis as this she proved false and unreliable. It is idle to talk now of compromises. The issues before the country must be settled, not by half-way measures, but by a firm and resolute adherence to

The prospect is cheering. There is scarcely a chance for defeat; but vigilance is a duty all true patriots owe their country just now. It is no common crisis that is before us. The elements of ment minister to England misch ef, if they can combine, are formidable, and the success of such a combination would change the character of this government, and perhaps its destiny. Not only are the equal rights of the States in danger, the peace and harmony of the two sec tions of the Union, but the cause of civil and religicus liberty is at issue. We have an abiding confidence in the patriotism of the people, whenever the true issue is presented; but let not Kentucky have this year an ill-advised and unpa triotic record. Let her stand side by side with her sister States of the South, against the fanaticism of race and religion, and against the Northern

The Know-Nothings have made their nom inations for judicial offices. Caleb Logan, Esq., is nominated for the office of Chancellor. We understand that there were several candidates for the honor: Logan, Pilcher, Haggin, Worthington Muir, Pirtle, and Harrison. The hindmost was dropped on the successive ballotings, until Logan carried off the prize. He is understood to be the author of the penderous articles against the Pope that have appeared in the organ. He was a lawyer of ability, but his fear of the Pope, we presume, had more than anything else to do with his nomination

We see that a meeting of the faithful at Alleasville, compliment the editor of the Journal for his defense of the reputation of Louisville. We don't think this city has need of such a de fender. She will repudiate all defense of crime here, and that is the point of the Journal's defense. He has done the injury, and his defense only ag gravates it. Let him abuse Louisville if he wants to benefit her; let him show that the city is no longer under his dictation, and that his counsels and defense are alike repudiated. This is just what Louisville needs to restore her credit and prosperity. No sensible man thanks him for defending what is indefensible. He was chief agent in stirring up a war of races in Louisville, and producing the scenes that will ever remain a dark blood-stained page in her history. His efforts are to defend himself, not Louisville. Every word he Mr. Charles Ward, the youthful planist, and som says in her defense is that much injury.

If a thing is to be estimated by its cost Louisville should set a high value on Know-Noth ingism. She has paid dearly for it. She had a claim to the glorious harvest of the present year, that all her neighbors are reaping; she gave it away for Know-Nothingism, and her good name along with it, You who have property to sell or rent, how do you like the ruling?

against the patriots of Kansas, and the leaders are giving leg bail. Robinson started, but was apprehended; and Reeder is missing. He threatened rounded by his crowd, but Uncie Sam's troops were not to be put off with threats. There will be no war in Kansas, but some tall running.

Islands imploring aid, and the merchants of New York are endeavoring to raise money enough to freight a ship with provisions and clear it for the listands as soon as possible.

The Know-Nothing organs are now con-Democracy and Know Nothingism. The truth is, the 20th of June. An appeal has been taken. that the Know Nothings had all the departments of the city government, and conducted them in the most shameless manner, to the disgust of all tisements of Fubile Meetings, Masonic, Odd Fellows', Firement's, ac., are charged fifty cents per square of ten lines again the first insertion, and twenty-five cents each subsequent insertion. The Know-Nothings made their and rascality, and in favor of Democracy. Independent Whigs, it is said, voted the Democratic ticket-very likely; and they will do so again, in all probability. The contest was just about as thorough a condemnation of Know-Nothing rule as could have been given. Here are several statements to be observed There was a tide of emigration from Louisville to Chicago last year, and of Germans, too. At least Craig says he prevents the potato disease by plantof the mountains among Democratic papers, and, a dozen of these Germans have returned, and are ing several varieties together. That is some confession: but are they the same men that were raving like savage masts last summer? and if so, may they not get into the same condition again; and may it not be necessary, in order to prevent another St. Bartholomew's day, to slaughter them by wholesale, and roast men and women in their own houses? Are not some of these "potentates" of the Pope prepared to shoot down innocent American citizens?

Whilst this city has been taxed heavily to pay a police to protect persons and property; whilst she is giving millions to railroads, in order to increase her population and wealth, it is enough to excite the indignation of all interested in her prosperity, to reflect that her population have been driven off, and suspicion and distrust created, until it is given out that Germans are satisfied now that they will be protected in person and property. The very announcement admits that it is questionable. Last August, notwithstanding the expense of the police, no protection was afforded to either life or property; and from that day to the a party bent only on the offices, regardless of the neace and order of the city.

This year has been a season of prosperity to all our neighboring cities. They have made rapid strides in population, and prosperity beyond example. Accident on the Panama Railroad-Over Thirty Fersons Killed.

The following from the Aspinwall Courier (Extra), of May 7, embodies all the news which has come to hand of a frightful disaster, which occurred on the Panama Railroad on the 6th instant: Yesterday morning, three trains left this city Panama, with the passengers of George Law, in number near nine hundred. About half a mile the other side of Gatu bridge, the second car from the locomotive ran off the track, from some cause now inexplicable, and eight others followed; some were piled up on to others, across the track, and others were rolle off on either side. The Old Mill.

BY WILL W. HARNEY. And the quaint old mill stands still; The sun-mixed shade, like a spotted snake. Lies half-hidden in the bosky brake And half across the rill.

The summer comes and the winter comes, And the flower blooms and the striped bee hums, And the old mill stands in the sun; The lichen hangs from the walls aloof. And the rusty nails, from the ragged roof, Drop daily, one by one.

The long grass grows in the shady pool, Where the cattle used to come to cool, And the rotting wheel stands still; The gray owl winks in the granary loft. And the sly rat slinks, with a pit pat soft

The mill-wheel clickt, and the mill-wheel clackt And the groaning grooves once creakt and crackt, And the children came and played; The lazy team, in the days of yore, Munched their fedder at the old mill door,

From the hopper of the quaint old mill.

But the good wife died, and the miller died, And the children all went far and wide From the play-ground by the dam; Their marble ring is grass o'ergrown As the mossy foot of the rude grave stone Where the old folks sleep so calm.

Or drowsed in the grateful shade.

But the miller's son, in the city thick, Dreams that he hears the old mill click, And sees the wheel go round; And the miller's daughter, thro' her half-shut eyes, Can see her father, in his dusty guise. And the place where the corn was ground. LOUISVILLE, KY., May, 1856.

[From the N. O. Orleanian.] AN OFFSET .- John H. Harney, Esq., editor he Louisville Democrat-who, in the midst Know-Nothing riots, slaying and murderings, which disgraced that city some time since, and when life was insecure, and the hazard of de-nouncing the assassins great, shrank not from the esponsibility, nor feared the issue-has been nandsomely complimented by a number of his fel-ow-citizens, for the firmness which he evinced and tevotion manifested, in the cause of civil and reerty. On a late occ im with a silver pitcher, as well for his zeal in the manner specified, as "for exposing the crimes which have been the source of incalculable mis shief to the interests of Louisville." The compliment, besides being truly merited, was very oppor-tune, and an offset to the persecution of which Mr. Harney was being made the victim by the heads of the party which he had denounced, and whose il iberal course and outrageous procedures he has not hesitated to declare, on every occasion, has driven off from Louisville an industrious and cor-cect population, ruined its trade, and brought a sperous and thriving city to a condition reatly to be deplored!

Recently a portion of the mercantile classes and dealers, perceiving the rapid decay of the city, he loss of its commerce, etc., held a meeting and requested the papers to cease representing Louisville as in a state of decadence; that is, to disguise he positive fact from outsiders, as though truth sould long remain concealed, or, like the light of a candle, be hid under a bushel. The editor of the Democrat would not acquiesce in such a requist, nor cloak the reality from the public, more especially as the persons who desired concealment were amongst those who, by their acts, had effected the njury which they felt and complained of, and u o the present Mr. H. continues to show the evil esults of the election riots. Irritated by his so loing, his representing things as they really exist, and the causes which produce them, they have endeavored to crush him by withdrawing from him heir support, and inducing all others whom they could control to do likewise, id. est., all others of similar feeling, and imbued with the like injudi-sious prejudices. Day after day orders to discon-tinue advertising and subscriptions to his paper each him; but the crusade got up against the in-repid gentleman, instead of causing him to quali r desist from rebusing the parties who brought about the consequences which they desire to cloak, only render him the more resolute and determined. A reaction, we are glad to notice, has taken place, and the friends of Mr. Harney have arrayed them around him, and, as an evidence of their appreciation, have presented him with the testi-monial named. The Democracy of our city, who revers the true worth, and admire firmness and consistency, should, by all means, subscribe for the "Louisville Democrat." They will discover in it an able expounder of their principles, and in Mr. tlarney a fearless champion of their cause—devoted, capable, and zealous. Independent of these sterling recommendations, we consider it the duty of all men when a system of presenting is wronger. of all men, when a system of persecution is wrongly evoked against their fellows, to rally to their aid, and by so doing, frown down malevolence of the worst kind. We are indifferent as to party, creed, or country in such cases—for this mede of crushing, by combination, is highly disreputable and wholly anti-Republican. Elopement-Seduction-Adultery. Quite an excitement prevailed in the upper ward of our city on Thursday morning, in consequence of a married man, named Wm. Since eloping with a young lady aged fourteen, the daughter of a respectable mechanic of the Firs-Ward. The circumstances are of an aggravated character. On Wednesday afternoon this gay lotharic, Silsbee, hired a horse and carriage from Mr. Durfee, packed up his trunk and took it with him stating to his wife he would return in a day him stating to his wife he would return in a day. him, stating to his wife he would return in a day or two, drove around a few of our streets, and, by agreement, took in a young female passenger who was waiting for him, and away they went en route for Illinois. Toward dark they arrived in Scranton and sojourned with "mine host" Kressler, and registered their names as Wm. Brown and lady. After supper they called for a room and lady. After supper t retired for the night.

In the meantime, the father of the zirl and the father of Silsbee's wife learned of the sinden departure of the twain, and fearing that all was not right, started, about eight o'clock, in pursuit of the fugitives, and arriving in Soranton discovered their whereabouts; they then procured a warrant from Justice Pier, for the arrest of Silsbee, and proceeded to their room, where, by a little stratagem, they got Silsbee to arise from his bed to open the door—and to their consternation and shame, in rushed the unwelcome guests! and nothing but the just and righteous veneration for the majesty of the law to punish the faithless husband and foul seducer, prevented them from inflicting summary vengeance on the villain.

Shocking Tragedy.

One of the most deplorable tragedies that ever ccurred in our city took place last night at a co-illion party at the house of Mr. Gorlitz, on Upcer ligh street. It appears that at about half-past 10 o'clock a young man named William Royse went to the house for the purpose of obtaining admis-sion to the ball. Mr. Samuel M. Bolin, one of the city watchmen, who was acting as door-keeper, refused Royse admission without a ticket, when he(R.) told Bolin that he had obtained a ticket from Mr. Berry Huddleson. The latter coming up about that time, Mr. Bolin asked him if he had given Royse a ticket, to which H. replied that he had not. Royse and two young men with him, named Launus and Corwle, attempted to pass up stairs, when Bolin caught Royse by the lappel of the coat and attempted to detain him. then drew a knife and struck at Bolin, the entering the breast just below the heart. Bolin staggered back, and in five minutes expired Royse and his two companions were immediately arrested and taken to the county jail. We shall make no comments on this deplorable affair till a judicial investigation is had, as it is possible we may be mistaken in some of our statements. Mr. Belin was one of our oldest citizens and had long served as an officer for the city and county, and his death under such circun is much to be deplored. The father of young Royse is also one of our oldest and most esteemed citizens, and has the sympathy of all who know him. Mr. Bolin leaves a widow who has long been an invalid, upon whom this blow falls with crushing force. Judge Bicknell, this morning, ordered the re-assembling of the Grand Jury for the purpose of investigating this sad affair.

New Albany Ledger, 20th.

Major Donelson, it will be remembered says he left the Democratic party because he could no longer sustain its principles, which reminds a Western editor of the manner in which a fellow who was not wanted in a certain company told his story. "Why did you leave old man Smith's so story. "Why did you leave old man Smiss so early last night?" was the question. "Why you see, I called to see Miss Nancy, and she would n't see, I called to see Miss Nancy, and she would n't have anything to say to me. So I sot awhile, and the old man told me I had better go. And I sot awhile longer, and then one of the boys came and took me to the door and gave me a push, and then I thought may be my company was n't wanted, and so-I left."

SPECIAL NUTTUES. To the Public

OF THE UNITED STATES! An advertisement of Mr. UDOLPHO WOLFE, lately published, as I suppose, for the protection of his Schie-dam Schnapps against counterfeiters, has come under my observation; and, being engaged in the manufacture of Schiedam Schna, ps, were I to let it pass without notice, I might be considered among those he denominates "Pirates and Venders of Poison." But the im-mense patronage and success that has attended the sale of the arti-le manufactured by me, and the opinion of competent judges as to its qualities as a beverage and ts medicinal virtues, precludes the possibility of the deathat I am included among those he designs to impugn. No doubt he feels aggrieved at the depreciation of the sale of his Schnapps, which is manifest to all, since min has been brought into competition with his. Not on'y have I succeeded in competing with him quality, but the constant and increasing demand for ny article will soon satisfy him that his caution to the tizens of the "Southern and Western States" will avail him nothing as far as I am concerned. The character of my Schie lam Schnapps is too well estab-ished in those States to be injured by any such invidious publication. The motive of his advertisement is obvious to every one, and feeling well satisfied that all such missiles thrown at me by him will fall harmless at my feet, I will here, for the satisfaction of the public, publish my Copy Right, entered in the Southern Dis-rict of New York, on the 28th of December, 1854

Be it remembered, That on the twenty-eighth day of December, Anno tomin 1884, Barnard L. Simpson. of the said vistrict, hath deposited in this office the title of a print or label, the title of which is in the words following, to-wit: "Barnard L. Simpson's Aromatic Schedam Juniper Schnapps, a superior Tonic Anti-Dyspeptic Inviscorating Cordial; the right whereof he claims as author and proprietor, in conformity with an act of Concress, entitled "An act to amend the acversi acts respecting copy rights."

GEO. W. MORTON, Clerk of the Southern District of New York.

The word Schiedam Schnapps is derived from a town The word Schiedam Schnapps is derived from a town in Holland, called "Shiedam," which is celebrated as a place of extensive juniper plantations and numerous istilleries of the above article, which has been known as Schnapps" for centuries. Does it not appear, now, poor and deceitful for D. W. to attempt to make a wrong and untrue impression on the public by asserting that the name "Schiedam Schnapps" belongs exclusively to his article, and that all others are counterfeits and impositions? U. W. has no monopoly, and no more right for the sole importation of Schiedam Schnapps than anybody else, and he may rest assured that I shall be the last to submit to his unjustifiable pretensions.

The great and increasing demand for my Genuine Schiedam Schnapps in Louisville, and throughout Ken-tucky, has induced me to appoint Mesars. CLARE & Johnson, Wholesale Druggists, No. 509 Main street, a my agents for supplying the trade at my regular prices, and they will always be furnished with a full stock of both quarts and pints, safely packed, in good shipping I take pleasure on this occasion to tender my sincere thanks to the public in general, and to my friends in particular, for the kind liberality with which they have patronized me from my commencement of this enterprize, and I assure them that I shall continue to pro-vide them always with a genuine and superior article of Schiedam Schnapps.

I had seen Westar's Baisam of wild Cherry puffed up in the papers, and I concluded to try it. I used bottle after buttle, which, in taste and in its operation, resembled paregoric—soothing temporarily. My disease had by this time become firmly seated. I had cold night sweats, hectic fevers srelling of the limbs, &c., showing confirmed Consamption!

A Human Life Saved! DOWAGIAC, Mich., March 11, 1856

J. A. Rhodes, Esq.—Dear Sir: As I took your medi-ine to sell on consignment, "no cure no pay," I take pleasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three rothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a air specimen of all I have received: W. S. Conklin told me-"I had taken nine bottles of Christie's Ague Balsam, and continually run down while using it, until my lungs and liver were congested to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that all thought it impossible for me to ive through another chill! The doctors, too, did all they could for me, but thought I must die. Nothing lid me any good until I got RHODES' FEVER AND AGUE CURE, which at once relieved me of the distress and causes at my stomach and pain in my head and bow-els, and produced a permanent cure in a short time." H. M. Conklin says: "I had been taking medicine of as good a doctor as we have in our county, and taken ny quantity of quinine and specifics without anya good result, from 25th August to 17th December. But eeing how nicely it operated on my brother, I got a ected a permanent cure by using two-thirds of a bot-8. M. Conklin was not here, but both the other brother say his case was the same as H. M.'s. I sold the medicine to both the same day, and the cure was as speedy rom the same small quantity, and I might so specify Yours with respect, A. HUNTINGTON. The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is, it is of nobetter tenor than the vast number of like certificates I have already published, and the still greater amount that is continually pouring in to me.

One thing more. Last year I had occasion to CAU One thing more. Last year I mad occasion to the rion the public in these words:
"I notice one firm who have taken one of my general circulars, substituted the name of their nostrum for my medicine, and then, with brazen impudence, end their pamphlet with the exclamation, 'Let the proprietor of any pamphlet with the exclamation,' Let the proprietor of any other medicine say as much if he dares," &c.

Now I take pleasure in saying that the CAUTION re ferred to the same "Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam" that is mentioned in the above certificate. There are several other industrious people who are applying to their poisonous trash all that I publish about my Fever and Ague Cure, or Antidote to Malaria, except the certificates of cures, and the certificate of the celebrated chemist, Dr. James R. Chilton, of New York, in favor of its perfectly HARMLESS CHARACTER, which in layor of its perfectly Harmless Characters, which is attached to every bottle. These will always serve to distinguish my medicine from imitations.

WASHINGTON, May 20. SENATE .- Mr. Seward made an ineffectual effort to urge the passage of a joint resolution from the House in aid of the Cape De Verd sufferers. The bill making appropriations for consular and diplomatic expenses was passed.

Mr. Benjamin, from the Committee on Commerce reported a joint resolution requiring the Commis-ioner of Patents to take the necessary steps to btain information relative to the growth and conumption of tobacco and cotton in the several coun-umption of toacco and cotton in the several cour-ries of the world; passed.

Mr. Sumner resumed his speech on Kansas af-'airs, and proceeded to consider the various reme-tics proposed for crime against Kansas, which he uccessively considered under different aspects: First—Remedy of tyranny in shape of appropria-tions, and troops to inferce the usurpation. Sec-ond—Remedy of folly proposed by the Senator rom South Carelina (Mr. Butler). Third—Reme-ly of injustice and civil war, proposed by the Senator from Illinois (Mr. Douglas). Fourth and ast—Remedy of justice and peace proposed by the Senator from New York (Mr. Seward), which last would admit Kansas at once with her present population. All objections to such admission were considered, whether grounded on want of population or irregularity of form, and the precedent of Michigan was particularly reviewed. Here Mr. Buchanan's opinions were introduced, who vindicated Michigan on grounds precisely applicable to cated Michigan on grounds precisely applicable to Kansas.

In conclusion the comparison was made between he tyranny of the President in Kansas and the yranny of King George the Third. From Con-gress he appealed to the people in the coming Presidential election to vindicate Kansas. Let the ballot box of the Union, with its multudinous might, protect the ballot box there.

Mr. Cass characterized Mr. Sumner's speech as the most un-American to which he had ever listhese Senators—one, Mr. Cass, of venerable years, and with whom he had been in relations of per-onal regard longer than any other Senator within the sound of his voice.

The Senator from Michigan must know full well that nothing could fall from him (Mr. Sumner) which could possess anything but kindness, and would now say to him that his statements respect ng Michigan were founded on legal documents, commissioners request that it may remain with and on the principles of Jackson, Grundy, Buchanseal unbroken until their return. To this statement Mr. Sumner gave to his face the flattest denial, saying that he replied to a similar charge in June, 1854, as reported in the Globe, from which he now read in effect. He had sworn to support the constitution as he understood it was already and the clause of the ways penalties.

Douglas knew how that was done. (Laughter.) the defended Atchison from the charge of acting

Mr. Mason said political relations, in obedience to the form of our government, bring senators into to the form of our government, brig sonates that associations, which, beyond the walls of the Senate Chamber is dishonor, and touching whose hand would be pollution. Washington, May 20. The President, in his veto of the St. Clair flats The Fresident, in this vector is a St. Call hats bill sent to the Senate to-day, says, in considering it under the Constitution, that the power of Congress to construct works of internal improvement is limited to cases in which work is manifestly needful and proper for the execution of some one needful and proper for the execution of some one or more of the powers expressly delegated to the General Government, I have not been able to find for the proposed expenditure any such relative power, unless it be power to provide for the common defense and to maintain the army and navy. The British Government now distinctly disaows having entertained any intentions to violate our municipal laws or outrage our national sov-eignty. It is understood in diplomatic circles that Mr. Crampton will leave the country immediately after receiving his passports and carry to the Sec-retary and other members his legation, not inclu-ded in our dismissal; his object being to close the embassy entirely, and thus emphasize the suspen

The Herald correspondent says Col. Gadsden arrived at New Orleans from Maxico. He beings an important possal treaty, one of the provisions of which is that Mexico and the United States shall pay each $75,000 towards defraying the expense of a steam company between the two countries along the Gulf of Mexico. A small Pyrotechnic Factory, owned by Dennis McCrossan, in Brooklyn, was destroyed by explosion. Four persons were in the building and a small boy named S. Bedeil was instantly killed. The others, Pat Dougherty, Bill Doyle, and John McCornick were as badle broaded.

Dr. Price's Chronic Specific. HIS REMEDY CERTAINLY has more efficacy than any remedy ever offered to the afflicted. This cannot be successfully controverted, as the evidence in its favor is so strong and weighty. We will not give a long array of certificates. We will give but few, and those shall be from gentle men high in standing and widely known, such as Hon. J. R. Underwood, Rev. Wm. L. Breckinridge, Judge Asher Graham, Judge Wm. V. Loving, Dr. Haggard, and Dr. L. C. Porter. and Dr. L. C. Forter.
Dr. PRICE'S CHRONIC SPECIFIC is the best Alterative, Tonic, and Blood Purifier ever compounded. It is adapted to cure Scrofula, White Swelling, Incident Consumption, Female Diseases, Dyspepsia, General Debitty. Rheumatism, Secondary Syphilis, Sore Eyes, and all Cutaneous Diseases, &c.

From Hon. J. R. Underwood.

I have seen many of Dr. Price's patients afflicted with the Scrofula, both before and after they were leaded. It is certain that ulcers of the most inveterate character seemed to yield readily to his Chronic Specific. I have seen many certificates in possession of Dr. Price, bearing testimony to his entire saccess.

Bowling Green, Ky. JOS. R. UNDERWOOD.

A servant girl in my family was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. Notwithstanding she had medicaltreaiment, upon the whole she grew worse, until I feared that she would become totally blind. She was placed under Dr. Price's treatment, and to all appearances acidical cure was performed. For several months pass she has seemed to me, as she does now, to be perfectly free from any defect or soreness of the eyes, and to be in perfect health otherwise.

Louisville, Ky. WM. L. BRECKINRIDGE.

From Judge Asher Graham,
(Formerly a member of the Bench of the Court of Appeals).

I have seen some of Dr. Price's patients. They appeared to have been very much diseased, almost beyond all hopes of recovery. They now seem to be perfectly relieved.
